BLADDER TROUBLES.

The bladder was created for one purpos namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

Sample Sent Free.

It is comforting to know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root fulfills every wish in quickly curing bladder and uninary troubles. It corrects frequent calls, inability to hold urine and scalding or stinging pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. MATTHEW BUSH,
Judge of Probate,

ANTAGONIZES LODGE.

Corliss Objects to the Senator's Immigration Bill.

WILL OFFER SOME AMENDMENTS.

One of Them Will Be a Provision Exclud ing from Employment on Public Works All Persons Who Are Not Citizens of This Country-Brilliant Orators in the Michigan Club-Rapid Recovery of Secretary Alger.

Washington, Feb. 15 .- Congressman Corliss of Detroit has recently attracted considerable attention in Washington because of his persistent and insistent efforts to keep before the congress his views on restriction of immigration. He boldly challenges the veteran legislator, Senator Lodge, and antagonizes the Lodge immigration bill. He says that an educational test for the admission of immigrants is an exceedingly narrow test. It would exclude thousands of honest people who come here seeking homes, but it would let in all of the educated anarchists who fiee to our shores to avoid punishment for crime. Mr. Corliss will offer several amendments to the Lodge bill, the most important of which will be a provision excluding from employment upon public works all persons who are not citizens of this country.

All of the Michigan orators who were absent from Washington delivering ad-dresses on Lincoln's birthday have returned and are in their places attending to public business. The anniver-sary of Lincoln's birth is becoming more and more a popular occasion and every year the strong speakers of both houses of congress are called to various points to deliver addresses.

Brilliant Orators in the Michigan Club.

Senator Burrows did not originally intend to act as toast master at the Michigan club banquet. He accepted the invitation only after urgent solicitation by the committee in charge. He supposed that Congressman Smith of Grand Rapids was to preside until notified to the contrary.

Hon. James S. Clarkson, late chairman of the Republican national com-mittee, says: "The Michigan club has developed a number of brilliant orators. I could name a score, but one will suffice. There was a young man named Dolliver in Iowa whom we all knew to be an orator of superior merit and ability. Upon the suggestion of one of his prominent friends, Mr. Dolliver was invited to speak at a Michigan club banquet ten years ago. His address be-fore that distinguished gathering was so thoroughly appreciated and was received with such demonstrations of hearty approval that he at once acquired a national reputation, and he was invited everywhere. On all occasions he acquitted himself with credit, and he is today a member of congress from Iowa, one of our foremost legislators and orators."

Bert Kennedy of Sand Lodge, assistant doorkeeper of the national house of representatives, makes a speech every day in the house. It occurs at a quarter to 12 o'clock. The young man stands on the dais in front of the speaker's chair, hammers the desk with the gavel and shouts: "I am directed by the doorkeeper to request all persons who are not entitled to the floor to please retire. The rules of the house require the same."

All Outsiders Excluded.

This announcement is followed by energetic efforts on the part of all mes-sengers to make everybody move out of the hall of the house, so that when Speaker Reed enters at noon and calls the house to order, all outsiders have been excluded. The young man from Michigan is undoubtedly proud of his

The rapid recovery of General Alger during the past week surprised his friends. He was known to be very weak and for a time his recovery seemed impossible. But with skillful nursing and the exercise of strong determination on his own part, he began to recuperate with rapidity. Fortunately, he obeyed his physicians and did not over exert himself, as he was inclined to do with returning strength.

Hamilton King, minister to Siam, who recently passed his examination with credit, cannot remain long at home in Michigan, because the department of state expects him to sail for his post of duty early in March, certainly not later than the 15th.

" Senatorial Sunshine."

Private Secretary Henry M. Rose, in desk drawer labeled "Senatorial Sunshine," places letters of commendation which come to Senator Burrows concerning his public acts. Men in public life receive so much of criticism and so little of praise that the label "Sena-torial Sunshine" for a drawer of that kind is a proper thing.

The greed of office is well exemplified in the fact that a score or more of applications for appointment in the census bureau have been received by the Michigan senators, although the census bureau has not been established and will not be established for several months to come. In the meantime these applications will be filed in the interior department. If the officeseekers are wise they will wait until the proper time comes and then file new applications. The papers now coming in ahead of time will be fly-blown pefore appointments are made.

President McKinley is in favor of the construction of war vessels on the great lakes. He has stated to Senator Mc-Millan of Michigan, Senator Foraker of Ohio and Senator Cullom of Illinois that he construes our treaty with Great Britain to mean that this govern-ment and the government of Great Britain shall each maintain only one war vessel on the great lakes, but it is not intended by the treaty that war vessels shall not be constructed on the lakes. Neither Disturbed Nor Embarrass It is not true that the Michigan senators were disturbed in their selections of men for federal positions by the announcement that Governor Pingree would call an extra session of the legislature. They were neither disturbed nor embarrassed, and they did not presume that the governor intended to embarrass them. When the president nominated George G. Covell to be United States attorney for the western district of Michigan and

A. Oren Wheeler to be marshal for the same district, it was assumed that an end of an ugly fight for office had been reached. But there was immediate opposition to the confirmation of those gentlemen. The nominations were at once referred to the committee on the judiciary and the report was delayed but a few days. The Michigan senators have entire control of confirmations to presidential offices in Michigan.

Our Coast Defenses

"Our seacoasts are defenseless and our navy is defective," says Admiral Jouett, one of the heroes of the old navy, a brave old tar who has been in many a fight at sea.

"I am opposed to modern battleships," continued the admiral. "The battleships are of no value, and they cost upwards of $3,000,000 each. The heavy rifled cannon now being made can sink the best battleship now on the ocean. They loom up out of the water and are

"What would you do for seacoast defenses?" "Instead of building forts, with costly gun carriages, I would simply mount heavy rifled cannon advantageously near the harbor approaches of our big cities. Those guns, properly aimed and served, could strike any modern battleship that approaches, for we can aim accurately about five miles.

"Then I would build a monitor like the Puritan for every important harbor. She is a floating fortress and can move to any point of danger, while fortifica-tions are stationary. The monitor Puritan is the best fighting vesel on the earth today. She stands only thirty inches out of water, carries the very heaviest of guns, and she cannot be seen at a distance of two miles. But the officers on the Puritan can see hostile battleships five or six miles away, and can send heavy shot and shells into their hulls near the water line. And the enemy can't strike the Puritan because she cannot be seen at a greater distance than two miles.

A Waste of Money.

"I would do away with battleships entirely. It is wasting money to build I would build a lot of cruisers like the Minneapolis and send them out to destroy the commerce of an enemy During our civil war the Confederates had a commerce destroyer called the Alabama. That cruiser practically destroyed all the commerce flying the American flag. If one cruiser could do that, what could thirty good modern, swift cruisers do? They could destroy the commerce of Great Britain or any other country, and when a nation's commerce is destroyed she is done fight-

Spain has admitted during the past six months that her method of warfare in Cuba has caused the death of 200,000 people by starvation. She has permitted this country to raise food and clothing and other supplies to mitigate the suffering of another 100,000, now slowly starving to death. As a last admission Spain has conceded that Miss Clara Barton shall go to Cuba as the agent of the Red Cross society to bring succor to the sufferers, and Miss Barton is there. Facts, undeniable facts, point unmis-takably to the condition which shows that Spain is but little above the level of barbarism.

Investigating Civil Service Methods The committee on civil service reform has been investigating civil service methods almost continuously for six weeks. It has been demonstrated that the law has been grossly violated in many instances during several administrations. By favoritism certain persons have been selected from the civil service lists and have received appointments, whereas thousands of others who have passed the civil service examinations have thereby lost their just chances for appointment. Strange, ain't it, to what lengths people will go in order to get

"Billy Bryan is our man" says ex-Congressman Towne of Minnesota, chairman of the silver Republican party. "He is the natural leader of the silver forces for 1900. All of the silver men will support him."

Inquiry among leading silver men developed the fact that the Democratic, Populist and silver Republican leaders have united upon a plan for co-operation with the view of supporting Bryan for the nomination in 1900. Therefore Mr. Towne spoke advisedly. There has been such a strong effort recently made, particularly in New York, to side-track the Bryan boom, that this combination is important to know about, so that its movements may be anticipated. It is fair to assume, however, that all of the silver forces will be united in the next presidential campaign, and it is quite likely that they will work together during the coming congressional cam-

He did not learn of his son-in-law's death until he reached Indianapolis. He immediately wired his daughter a message of condelence and sympathy and also tele-graphed the Pierson hotel asking what disposition had been made of the body, and that telegrams be addressed him at St. Louis.

He said last night: "I have just received a telegram from El Paso informing me that the remains have been shipped to San Francisco. My daughter telgraphed that she was about to depart for San Francisco. The body will be buried on Monday in his mother's vault in San Francisco. She has a magnificent mausolem there which cost $40,000, and is probably the finest in America."

HEALTHY MATERNITY.

Two Grateful Women Tell of the Help They Have Received From Mrs. Pinkham.

The climax of life force in woman is capable motherhood. The first requisite for a good mother is good health. Health of body means health of the generative organs.

Read what Mrs. G. A. NONNAWAREB, Bluffton, Ohio, says about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and how well it prepared her for maternity: DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I must say a word in praise of your Vegetable Compound. I nant, and labor was not nearly as long as it was with my other babies; and my baby is so healthy to what the others were. I think every woman should use your Compound when preg-nant, it will save them so much suffering and misery. I cannot say enough in praise of it. If ever I need medicine again, I shall use your Compound."

The most successful tonic known to medicine for women approaching maternity is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a safeguard for every woman who uses it, and the fullest benefit comes from its use with Mrs. Pinkham's advice freely offered to all woman. Her address is Lynn, Mass. Here is a convincing statement, bearing directly on this subject, from Mrs. E. BISHOP, of 1848 Pacific

St., Brooklyn, N. Y.:
"DEAR MRS. PINEHAM:—I am a great believer in your Compound. I was almost despairing of ever again being well, as I was a great sufferer, and had been for years. I suffered from womb trouble, and had terrible blind fits. After writing to you I tried your Compound. The result was astonishing. I have used it and advocated it ever since. In childbirth it is a perfect boon. I have often said that I should like to have its merits thrown on the sky with a search-light, so that all women would read, and beconvinced that there is a remedy for their sufferings."
